NEW YORK AND HARLEM RAILBOAD COMPANY,

YEW YORK AND HARLEM RAILEOAD COMPANY.

Proposals for a loan.—In order to fund the floating debt of this company, amounting to nearly $750,000, a new issue of mortgage lemds, to the crient of one million of dollars, has been decided on by the Board of Directors as the best mode of redeeming the company from the embarrasaments under which it labors by reason of the high rates of interest paid apon the cibt.

Subscriptions are accordingly invited from all holders of the securities and stock of this company, for the purchase of the bonds thus to be issued, redeemable in the years, and bearing seven per cent interest, payable semi-annually.

To give to the holders of unsecured bonds and ometanding extension certificates the preference in this loan, subscriptions, through solicited from all, will take precedence in the following order.—

estension certificates the preference in this loan, subscriptions, thengh solicited from all, will take precedence in the following order—

1st Preference.—To the holders of the unascured bonds of the company, redecemble in 1858, 1859, 1851, 1877 and 1872, 24.—To the holders of preferred stock.

34.—To the holders of preferred stock.

Payments to be made as follows:—Forty per cent in cash, and sixty per cent at par in the above mentioned unascured bonds, extension certificates, or preferred stock, at any time before the 18th day of January next. Any of the liabilities, or acceptances of the company, which are due, and constituting a part of the fleating debt, to be received as cash.

These bonds will be secured by a mortgage on the whole road, its franchises, real estate and rolling stock, subject to the first and second mortgages already given; but the mortgage herein provided for will be a first lien upon extension certificates to the smount of one million five hundred and twenty four thousand dollars, issued for the construction of Sty miles of the road from Dover Plains to Chatham, which certificates, now hypothecated as security for the floating debt, are to be redeemed by the proceeds of this loan.

As a further security to the purchasers of the new bonds, it is intended that $30,000 a year shall be set aside (provided that sum is carried over and above expenses and interest), and employed to purchase in the market each year the bending this loan, on who had so purchased to be immediately cancelled.

Persons wishing to subscribe to this loan, or who are inwhich. Persons wishing to subscribe to this loan, or who are in-gressed in the bonds or stock of the company, are referred the company's office, No. 33 Pine street, where a commi-ce of the directors will be in attendance daily from 12 to 2 P. K., to give all required information respecting the terms of the loan and the condition of the company. By order of the loard.
